Membership in the Missouri Dental Association is valuable for ALL students, whether you are starting your first year of school or preparing for the transition from graduation to a daily dental practice.

More than 150 years ago, your predecessors had the foresight to found the Missouri Dental Association. The MDA was founded to represent and advance the dental profession and support members’ efforts to provide ethical, quality oral health care to the public. It all begins with you.

Communications Synergy

We make it easy for you to get “news you can use” through the Focus magazine, modental.org website, FAQs, Classifieds and MDA New Dentist eNewsletter, all of which are provided with your Student Membership. Each includes information on MDA business, what’s going on in dentistry around the state and nation and topics and resources relevant to dental students and the dental practice. As a student member, you have access to the Members Only areas of modental.org. Login with your ADA number.

What’s Your Plan?

How do you plan to practice after graduation? Will you become an associate, go into public health or have your own solo private practice? The MDA has a Classifieds & Listings section on MODENTAL.org to help you connect with career opportunities. You can find ads for practices seeking associates, full and part time employment, dental practices and equipment for sale, and you can create your own listing too!

Protecting the Profession

It’s hard to put a value on. As a student and new dentist, you may not feel you have time to become involved with governmental and regulatory affairs. That’s why MDA makes it our business to be an advocate for you and the dental profession. Your membership gives you a voice in legislative decisions that can directly affect dentistry in Missouri. Dentists can’t afford to be silent partners in their own business and practice decisions. Political involvement is just good business.
Student Debt Resources

It won’t be easy to jump straight from school to your dream practice setting in your dream location, but being informed will give you the best shot at lining up your path to fit your financial needs and practice preferences. Wherever that path leads, the MDA and all of organized dentistry is a major resource for your success. We’ve created a navigational tool to help you get connected with possible debt-reduction options. Visit modental.org/studentdebt for more information.

Help is HERE

Dental school is expensive. Let the MDA ease the burden with these opportunities at saving money and easing the financial strain. Membership has its benefits. Look at what we can offer when you need it.

- Food for Thought Lunches
- Scholarships: The MDAF offers scholarships to dental students who are going into their second, third or fourth year of school. The recipient must be a Missouri high school graduate and a student member of the MDA. Scholarships are awarded to dental students based on academic merit and financial need.
- Free Registration: At MDA continuing education meetings for dental students.
- Sponsorships: The MDA supports dental student events like ASDA Fever Week and White Coat Ceremonies. Plus they sponsor a student liaison to attend the American Student Dental Association Annual Session.
- Board Exams: MDIS provides lunch for students taking the dental board exams in April/May and MDA/MDIS compile membership benefit and insurance materials for the dental board candidates.
- Student Delegate: Representation at the House of Delegates, MDA’s annual membership meeting.

The Real World After Graduation
You just passed your boards and graduated ... now what?

MDA makes it easy to transition your membership from student to active member. We’ve taken the difficulty out of getting your practice up and running with comprehensive resources to help you succeed.

- Reduced Dues: We know finances are tight when you start your career, but organized dentistry has your interest and your success in mind. The ADA, MDA and various local dental societies offer a reduced dues program, which offers recent graduates FREE membership for the remainder of your graduation year and the following year.
- Frequently Asked Questions: modental.org/faq
- New Practice Checklist: A list of “to-dos” and Missouri resources to contact when beginning to practice. Topics include licensing, regulations, infection control/OSHA, taxes, insurance and more.
- Reduced Registration and Course Fees: Attend and learn for less at MDA’s Annual conference which has a new dentist CE track.
- MDA New Dentist Committee: MDA New Dentist Committee is to be the voice and front line resource to new dentists throughout the tripartite who have been out of dental school for less than 10 years, to demonstrate the value of membership, and to focus on the needs of new dentists and dental students through the development of resources, education, facilitation of networking opportunities and advocacy.
- Missouri Dental Insurance Services: As insurance professionals, they are committed to members by providing peace of mind and security through quality insurance and financial products for your family, your practice, your staff and their families.
  - Professional liability for individual practitioners and corporations (75% discount for new dentists first year out)
  - Business owners package-building, contents & general liability (custom designed for dentists)
  - Workers compensation-required by law
  - Health insurance-Group and Individual
  - Disability Income and Business Overhead Expense
  - Life Insurance and Long Term Care
  - Retirement plans

A wide array of products and services including board exam policies and health, life, disability for students and their families, all from the MDA subsidiary, Missouri Dental Insurance Services (MDIS). For questions call 800-944-7550, visit mdis4dds.com, or email info@mdis4dds.com.
ADA Blog Available for New Dentists and Dental Students

Check out the blog New Dentist Now. Brought to you by the ADA’s New Dentist Committee, it features resources for new dentists and dental students as well as news and insights on the dental profession and beyond. New dentists and students can learn about tips for working with their dental team, leadership opportunities and overall insight into life as a new dentist. If you like what you see, feel free to link to New Dentist Now from your society websites or social media.

POWER OF THREE

To meet the challenges our members face, the American Dental Association, national, states, and locals, must adapt and help our members succeed by offering them products and services of value to them regardless of where or how they practice, or where or how they engage the ADA Organization. To achieve this, we believe each part of the ADA needs to work together in new ways to bring a shared vision for the national, states and locals, the “Power of Three.

The objectives of the “Power of Three” include:
• Provide consistent and “best in class” member service and experience.
• Drive member loyalty beginning with admission to dental school and continuing throughout a dentist’s career, regardless of the member’s entry point to organized dentistry.
• Learn to create and deliver this member value in new ways, focusing our collaborative efforts to achieve measurable results.
