About the Presenter: Dr. Greg Grobmyer practiced clinical dentistry in Tennessee for over a decade before chemotherapy from a cancer battle left him with numb fingers. In addition to coaching, he wrote on dental topics for numerous industry publications and websites and contributed to many consumer publications, including Reader's Digest, New York Magazine, Men's Health, Slate, and Insider Magazine. He even spent a few years moonlighting in standup comedy, which helped him become an engaging and entertaining speaker. Dr. Grobmyer is currently the Editor-in-Chief of Dr. Charles Blair's annually updated Dental Coding with Confidence book and Practice Booster's Insurance Solutions Newsletter, a contributing editor to the Dental Administration with Confidence and Dental Documentation with Confidence books, a course creator and lecturer for DentalZing.com, lead Revenue Enhancement Program Private Consulting Specialist, and host of The Dental Code Advisor Podcast.
